MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION

1. Name of the Society: The name of the society shall be "The Supreme Court (Middle Income Group) Legal Aid Society.

2. Registered office of The office of the Society shall remain in the the Society: National Capital Territory of Delhi and at present at the following address:-

Chamber No. 109, Supreme Court Chamber, Tilak Marg, New Delhi-110 001.

3. Aims and objects: The aims and objects for which the Society is established are as under:-

(a) The Constitution of India mandates that all persons shall have equality of opportunity in the context of access to justice. It is in this regard, that the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 was enacted with a view to provide legal aid to the poorer sections of the society. However, given the prohibitive costs of litigation, especially at the appellate level, most citizens are unable to afford effective legal assistance. A large section of this group of people are those who belong to the middle income group. The society was constituted to provide access to effective legal assistance to persons in this strata of society.

(b) Article 39A of the Constitution provides that the State shall endeavor to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or any other disabilities. Consequently, there exist many institutions, both statutory and otherwise, that provide legal aid to citizens of different strata, so as to enable them to defend their rights before a court of law. However, most of these organizations cater to the upper sections of society, while a substantial percentage of the citizens who constitute and form the middle income group i.e. with incomes under Rs. 60,000/- per month, or Rs. 7,50,000/- per annum, are unable to afford legal assistance. Given the substantial cost of litigation in general, and before the Supreme Court in particular, it was decided to provide a mechanism whereby members belonging to this segment of the middle class, would be provided legal assistance at nominal fees and expenses.

(c) The society was constituted in order to provide legal aid to persons in the above mentioned category, who were seeking enforcement of their rights before the Supreme Court. This body receives recognition vide Regulation 3(4) 'Supreme Court Legal Services Society Regulations, 1996' which was framed pursuant to Section 29 of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987.

This society is funded by monies received as costs awarded by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in various cases and from the nominal fees received from applicants desirous of seeking legal aid under the society.

(d) The society is envisaged as a charitable, non-profit making society, whose essential objective would be to provide legal assistance to litigants belonging to the above mentioned

vi) The Executive Committee shall have the power to co-opt/appoint other members on the Society, or staff, to carry out the aims and objectives of the Society.

9. FUNCTIONS &
QUORUM OF THE
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

i) The Executive Committee of the Society shall meet atleast once in two months, or earlier if so decided, expedient and necessary.

ii) The Quorum for the meeting of the Executive Committee will be four where the presence of the President is mandatory.

iii) The Executive Committee will take up and decide all matters required to be discussed and resolved as are necessary for carrying out the purposes of the Society and to give effect to the rules of the Society.

10. WORKING OF
MIDDLE INCOME
GROUP SCHEME:

i) There will be a panel of Advocates, including Advocates-on-Record, whose services will be made available to provide legal assistance at nominal rates under the present scheme. While drawing up the panel, care may be taken to include an Advocate who is conversant with the regional language in which Court proceedings are conducted in the Courts below, if possible.

The panel Advocates shall agree to abide by the terms and conditions of the Society, upon the assignment of a case under the scheme.

ii) Any litigant desirous of availing legal aid under the Society, will have to approach the Secretary of the Society by filing an application in the prescribed proforma as approved from time to time by the Executive Committee, along with the relevant documents.

iv) The rates of fee payable to an Advocate or to a Sr. Advocate (if engaged at the request of the litigant)

Amended as on.....

will be such as indicated in the scheduled mentioned hereinafter.

v) As soon as the papers are received, they would be assigned to an Advocate-on-Record indicated by the applicant, who is on the panel of the Society. In case, the Advocate, after perusing the papers opines that the case is not a fit case to file Petition before the Supreme Court, in that case, the applicant will not be entitled to the benefit of the scheme.

Upon such an endorsement being made, the Supreme Court Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society shall return the papers forthwith to the applicant and deduct a sum of Rs.

750/- only towards service charges.

The balance amount of service charges and the amounts which may have been deposited by the applicant with the Society towards fees and expenses for handling the case, will be refunded to the litigant. If the Advocate-on-Record after examining the matter is satisfied that it is a fit case to be proceeded with, then the Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society will provide legal assistance to such a litigant. The view expressed by the Learned Advocate-on-Record will be final insofar as the eligibility of the applicant for obtaining the benefit of the Society is concerned.

vi) The applicant may indicate three names with respect to the Advocate-on-Record, or the arguing counsel, or the senior counsel, as the case may be, in the Order of preference, out of the panel maintained by the Society, to represent his case. The Society would try to honour the choice indicated.

vii) The Society would be at liberty to assign the matter to any Advocate-on-Record/arguing counsel, Sr. Advocate on the panel. The final right to assign the papers of the applicant, under the scheme to any Advocate-on-Record, or the arguing counsel or senior counsel, will remain with the Supreme Court (Middle Income Group) Legal Aid Society.

viii) Any intending litigant desirous of availing the benefit of the Society shall have to fill up the form prescribed, and accept all the terms and conditions contained therein. The proforma shall contain the schedule of fees and expenses, as applicable from time to time. A sum of Rs. 750/- shall be payable to the Supreme Court Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society (SCMIGLAC) as service charges. The schedule shall indicate the fees payable for various items of works and shall also indicate the Court fees and the approximate expenses for preparation of the Court record. The applicant shall have to deposit the fee indicated by the Staff Assistant attached to the Society, which will be in accordance with the Schedule attached to the forms approved by the Society from time to time. x) (a) Once the case is assigned to an Advocate it is the responsibility of the Advocate to deal with the matter as he/she deems fit in the interest of the client, and the Advocate is required to communicate directly with the litigant, and the Society will not monitor the progress of the matter. However, the Society will intercede only if a complaint is received in writing.

(b) After a complaint is received by the Society from the litigant and/or the concerned Advocate against the litigant/Advocate then the Society after making such enquiry, may take necessary action as may be deemed fit and necessary.

(c) If the Advocate who is appointed by the Society from the panel is found negligent in the conduct of the case entrusted to him, then he will be required to return the brief and refund the fees which may have been received by him from the applicant under the scheme.
